PAINTING AND DECORATING PROGRAM FOR WOMEN

The Australia-Pacific Technical College is a centre of training excellence set up to assist Pacific Island students gain Australian skills and qualifications in a variety of trade areas.

APTC is pleased to announce the introduction of a program in Painting and Decorating for Women only.

Painting and Decorating is normally a male dominated trade. However, recently after the graduation of the College's first female painter and the interest shown by women in this particular trade the APTC decided to offer this program for women only. Women have a very good eye for detail and with their natural abilities, can excel very well in this program.

This program will be offered through the Fiji Campus only.

This program is designed for New Industry Entrants. No prior experience necessary but a positive attitude and a passion for painting and decorating will go a long way.
